POLITICAL REVOLT IN YUGOSLAVIA SPREADS

Mass Resignation from Cabinet Ordered as Protest

POPULAR RESENTMENT THREATENS TO BLOCK ALLIANCE WITH AXIS

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, March 22.—Mass resignations of important officials and charges that a minister-sabotaged effort to gain the support of Russia added fuel today to a rapidly-flaring political revolt against the Yugoslav plan to capitulate to the Axis.

At a cabinet meeting marked by bitter recriminations, a member was reported to have accused Foreign Minister Aleksandar Cincar-Markovic of throwing away a telegram from the minister to Russia detailing his efforts for a mutual assistance pact with that nation.

Cincar-Markovic leaped to his feet, screaming: "Fantastic!"

He insisted that "Russia has not sufficient military strength to give us the aid we would like to have."

However, the angry resignation of the minister to Russia, Milan Gavrilovic, was reported.

Today the governor of the vitally-important Vardar Valley district and the vice-governor of Croatia resigned, and the independent Democratic party ordered all its members holding government positions to do likewise.

The party is the country's fourth most important.

Leaders of the strong Serb peasant party were planning a similar mass resignation.

Already three cabinet members have resigned, and six senators were reported planning to quit.

Meanwhile Premier Cvetkovich's search for substitute members to heal the break in the government so the deal with Germany might go through was fruitless, with one politician after another refusing to have anything to do with the transaction.

Vice-Governor Jukovic of Croatia was one of those who had been offered one of the three vacant cabinet posts. He had been ordered to present himself in Belgrade today, but instead he sent in his resignation.

Unconfirmed diplomatic reports from Istanbul said Turkey had received a declaration from Moscow that if the Turks find it necessary to defend themselves against any aggression from the Axis, Yugoslavia would not consider it an "imperialistic war."

If this report is true, it was considered by observers that Russia had given Turkey a "free hand" in opposing Germany.

Other diplomatic developments included an urgent conference between the Greek minister and Cincar-Markovic.

Two independent Democrat senators were said to have resigned already in protest against the proposed Axis deal.

Sources close to the senators said one of them had left for Greece or Egypt to organize co-operation with Britain.

Leaders of the Serbian peasant party, which includes most of Yugoslavia's Serb farmers, announced they had called a meeting, probably for tomorrow, at which all its members also would be ordered to quit their state jobs.

As this opposition spread through Yugoslavia, German minister Viktor von Heeren conferred at length with Premier Dragisa Cvetkovich and Foreign Minister Aleksandar Cincar-Markovic.

Their plans to go to Vienna tomorrow to sign an agreement with Germany already had been postponed indefinitely.

Informal sources said von Heeren told Cvetkovich and Cincar-Markovic that the German government was "extremely angry and impatient" at Yugoslavia's failure to sign the agreement quickly, and furthermore that the Reich's government "suspects" Yugoslavia is attempting to hedge and "stall for

SUGAR GROVE CHILD IS KILLED IN TRUCK CRASH AT HAMBURG

Linda M. Norbeck, 9, of Sugar Grove, was instantly killed shortly before noon today when a truck driven by her father, Martin E. Norbeck, 49, plunged into a gully near Hamburg, N. Y.

According to information received by relatives, Mr. Norbeck lost control of his truck, which was loaded with brick which he was taking from the Keystone Face Brick Company at Youngsville to Buffalo. The driver was unhurt.

Besides her parents, the child leaves two sisters, Olive and Nelda. Mrs. Norbeck and Carl Norbeck, of Sugar Grove, a brother of the driver, went to Hamburg this afternoon. It was expected the body would be brought to the Schoonover Funeral Home at Sugar Grove.

New York, March 22.—(A.P.)—A German radio broadcast heard by NBC today reported the torpedoing of a 2,000-ton ship in the Pacific ocean, probably "by German battleship."

BULLETIN
An East Coast Canadian Port, March 22.—(A.P.)—Freighter crews said today two British vessels may have been sunk by a German surface raider 300 miles southeast of Newfoundland. Wireless messages were received, they said, from a tanker and a cargo ship saying an "enemy" surface vessel was shelling them in that area.

BY LOUIS P. LOCHNER
Berlin, March 22.—(A.P.)—Adolf Hitler's battleships have made an extensive raid in the north Atlantic and these, with U-boats and the Luftwaffe, have destroyed the total of 224,000 tons of "enemy" shipping, it was announced today.

Fleet Admiral Luetjens, as leader of a battleship unit, reports as successes thus far during extensive operations by a strong sea power in the North Atlantic, the sinking of a total of 22 enemy merchantmen amounting to 116,000 registered tons, the daily war bulletin said.

"German battleships saved 800 survivors."

DNE, official German news agency, said it was the first time in naval history that first-line German warships in a large unit have carried on operations in the open Atlantic.

Single raiders or a few vessels together have contributed exciting chapters to the story of naval warfare.

Southwest English City Counts Many New Casualties After Raiders Blast City for Six Hours With Fire and Explosives

SHELTER IS STRUCK

Plymouth, March 22.—(A.P.)—This southwest English port counted many new casualties today after German night raiders had blasted the city for six hours with fire and high explosive bombs—one of which hit a shelter housing 250 persons left homeless in an attack the previous night.

It was feared that many of those in the shelter had been killed. Hundreds of persons, left homeless by the assault, wandered through bomb-pitted streets as rescue workers searched for victims trapped in the debris.

Fire watchers and rescue crews who worked through raids of the past two nights said the pounding last night was the worst of the two—and worse than any other this ancient port has undergone.

Lights were off in some sections.

FOURTH WASHINGTON CO. TRIAL POSTPONED

Washington, Pa., March 22.—(A.P.)—The fourth Washington county "rackets trial" scheduled to start next Monday was postponed indefinitely today in the wake of a third acquittal for three former county officials. Prosecutor James C. Bane and County Detectives Michael J. Perwell and William McBride.

A jury acquitted the three on charges of conspiracy to permit operation of slot machines during their 1936-40 term in office and of misconduct, yesterday after deliberating more than 24 hours.

Albert Phillips, of Charleroi, admitted operator of the machines, was convicted on the conspiracy charge and also directed to pay costs in his case. The county was assessed costs in the three other cases.

Special Prosecutor Ralph W. Peacock last night announced the postponement of the next trials.

20,000 PLANES FOR BRITAIN IN 18 MONTHS PLAN

BY JACK BELL
Washington, March 22.—(A.P.)—A production schedule to supply Great Britain with some 20,000 American-made fighting planes in the next 18 months—10,000 of these under terms of the $7,000,000,000 British aid bill—was reported today by high administration officials.

Supplementing this tremendous program, there were authoritative reports that surveys now are under way looking toward establishment of an aerial route to England over which patrol ships, as well as bombers, could be flown by easy stages.

A course beginning at Newfoundland and touching Greenland, Iceland and possibly Ireland was described as under contemplation.

This was said, however, to entail numerous difficulties, such as the lack of facilities and possible Danish objections in Greenland, as well as Ireland's refusal thus far to grant Britain bases on her territory.

Superintendent's Dramatic Reconstruction of Sunday's Tragedy Points Accusing Finger Toward Skilled Railroaders

FINDINGS DESCRIBED

Pittsburgh, March 22.—(A.P.)—A railroad superintendent's dramatic reconstruction of Sunday's train wreck near Baden blamed an experienced maintenance-of-way man and an inexperienced helper for causing the tragedy.

Five persons were killed and 110 injured when a Cleveland-Pittsburgh train on the Pennsylvania railroad tumbled over a 50-foot embankment beside the Ohio river where a 40-foot rail had been dislodged.

F. R. Rex, superintendent of the eastern division of the railroad, told Interstate Commerce Commission investigators yesterday only an experienced worker would have been able to deftly and skillfully pull out the 44 spikes to release the rail. Each spike, he said, had been pulled straight and true.

Rex said this man could have done the job in 25 minutes and 35 seconds. He knew, because he had one of the best trackmen, duplicated the work last Thursday.

The inexperienced worker left the story of his job behind him, Rex said, in removing bolts from the fish-plats which held the rail joints together. A railroad man would have instinctively run his lock nuts back on his bolt and handled his wrench deftly as not to destroy them, he said. But the bolts at the wreck scene had been badly weakened and scattered up and down the track.

Hope of Major General Martin is to See Every Man Lined Up on Some Kind of Team Within Next Ten Days

MANY ARE CONFINED

BY RICE YAHNER
Associated Press Correspondent
Indiantown Gap, March 22.—(A.P.)—A camp-wide athletic program with competition for every one of the 13,500 Pennsylvania soldiers in training here, was outlined today by Major General Edward Martin.

"In the next ten days I'd like to see every man lined up on some kind of athletic team, baseball, boxing, outdoor basketball, or any other kind of healthful competition," the general said.

The general looked to the warmer weather and the outdoor recreation program to cut down widespread cold, which put more than 1,000 men in the hospital.

To curb the increase in the sick list, General Martin ordered nightly inspections of the barracks to check on the ventilation.

More than $12,000 is available for camp athletic equipment, not including contributions to regiments.

Sheriffs had been following her trail since Tuesday, on skis and snowshoes.

The pair were pushed to a hospital at Fort Collins by the way of a toboggan. Mrs. Bove related that they had battled through drifts up to 10 feet deep and snow four feet on the level, crossing and re-crossing their own tracks.

Government Reported Hopeful of Quick Settlement of Allis-Chalmers Strike at Milwaukee Before Board Holds Meeting

WRIGHT FIELD QUIET

By the Associated Press
The government was reported hopeful today of quick settlement of the Allis-Chalmers strike at Milwaukee before the new National Defense Mediation Board holds its first meeting Tuesday.

Production of vital defense articles at the Milwaukee factory was halted in January when CIO auto workers, seeking a union shop, walked out. The firm has $15,000,000 in defense orders.

A bright spot appeared in the decision of AFL building trades workers to return to work on projects vital to the army's program at Wright Field O. A strike of 400 AFL craftsmen started on March 4 because the CIO electricians were employed at the field.

CIO strikers at the plant of the Aluminum Company of America, Edgewater, N. J., called a meeting today to consider a suggestion from Sidney Hillman, associate director of the office of production management, to halt their nine-day strike, go back to work and adjust a wage dispute.

The plant employs 2,000 men making aluminum parts for aircraft.

The Detroit regional office of the National Labor Relations Board yesterday issued a complaint of unfair labor practices.

PROPOSAL TO SLASH BILL FAILS

Rejecting Proposition to Cut Amount in Half, Senate Appropriations Committee Approves Unanimously Today $7,000,000,000 Measure to Carry Out the Administration's British Aid Program

MAY REACH EXECUTIVE BY MONDAY EVENING

Washington, March 22.—(A.P.)—Rejecting a proposal to cut the amount in half, the senate appropriations committee approved unanimously today a $7,000,000,000 appropriation to carry out the administration's British aid program.

The appropriation, already passed by the house, was approved without change after the committee had voted down a motion by Senator Nye (R-N.D.) to cut the amount to $3,500,000,000.

The motion previously had been rejected by an appropriations sub-committee, and Nye was not expected to offer the proposal to the full senate.

The senate will consider the appropriation Monday. Democratic Leader Barkley said he saw no reason why it should not be sent to President Roosevelt by Monday night.

Even opponents of the measure conceded the bill would be approved overwhelmingly without major change.

Funds which the sub-committee approved for carrying out the foreign aid bill were divided as follows:

1. Ordnance and ordnance stores, including arms and ammunition, $1,343,000,000.
2. Aircraft and parts, $2,054,000,000.
3. Tanks and other mechanized equipment, $362,000,000.
4. Ships boats and other craft, $629,000,000.
5. Miscellaneous military equipment and supplies, $260,000,000.
6. Manufacturing facilities, $752,000,000.
7. Agricultural, industrial and other commodities, $1,350,000,000.
8. Other expenses, $250,000,000.

The 312-page book, which carry the New Testament and Book of Psalms, will be distributed through the chaplain corps of the army and navy. Chaplains get their supply from the society's Chicago headquarters.

Enhancing the value of the volumes, explains N. B. Keyes of the National Bible Press, Philadelphia, printers of the New Service Edition, is a letter from President Roosevelt, which is reproduced in each book.

The Gideon Society is sending out pocket-sized Bibles, 1,000,000 of them, at the rate of 5,000 a day to the men in the army, navy and various training camps throughout the nation and in Hawaii.

The books, bound in washable imitation leather, may be shipped under a tunic pocket. There are brown ones for the army, blue for the navy and white for the men in the Hawaiian service.

HUMORIST GIVES PLEASING TALK AT LOCAL CLUB

Strickland Gillilan, widely known humorist, was presented to a large audience at the Woman's Club last evening as the final number on this year's local Y. M. C. A. lecture forum course.

Introduced by the lecture forum chairman, Robert W. Mackay, as the "dessert" which follows the heavier meal of former lectures on world affairs, Mr. Gillilan lived up to predictions and a reputation that has become an enviable one.

He touched upon many affairs of the day, Washington and its political personalities, his travels about the country, parents and their responsibilities, and humorous happenings, all in a lighter vein that veiled many practical lessons. Interspersed were a number of his poems, including the famous "Off Again, On Again, Gone Again, Finegan" with which he concluded.

In his remarks, Mr. Mackay reviewed the season's attractions, Wilmer Rowan, former secret service man; Dr. Will Duran, educator and philosopher; H. R. Knickerbocker, foreign war correspondent, all of which have been outstanding in their fields.

In prefacing the evening's program, R. W. Reynolds, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., asked members to enroll for next season and presented the slate from which speakers will be chosen, asking that each one present indicate his choices.

It was the first automobile fatality in Oil City this year. Oberly was prominent in Masonic circles. The car which struck him was operated by William E. Kanavy, 22, of Oil City.

HOME FROM SHOW

Mrs. Marguerite Painter, Alquist and Miss Janet Erickson, of the Metzger-Wright Charm Shop, returned this morning from attending the international beauty show in New York City, reporting it one of the most largely attended gatherings of its kind ever held and with registrations from all over the country. They report, also, that hair styling classes taught by the country's foremost experts were unusually helpful and inspiring and that the coiffure trend for spring follows very closely the same lines adopted for the new millinery.

Rex said also that the Pennsylvania's luxury train, the Manhattan Limited, which roared through Baden 18 minutes before the ill-fated train rolled into the river, had surged over a rail, partially unbolted from the line and held by few or no spikes.

Photographs and measurements showed the western end of the death-rail was blunted and battered by pounding wheels of the Manhattan.

The hearing was concluded last night after C. P. Sipe, track supervisor in the section where the wreck occurred, testified that a careful checkup had not disclosed any Pennsylvania railroad tools missing recently or any tool houses broken into during the week before the wreck.

be under way on this projected route, with the thought that if it could be established, pursuit ships of relatively short range might be ferried under their own power across the Atlantic in "stepping stone" hops. Such a system would sidestep the dangers of submarine and raider threats to which surface shipping is subject.

Most of the bombers thus far delivered to England were said to have been flown across non-stop under British supervision without a single casualty.

HOW TO HELP PREVENT FOREST FIRES

With all communications and other literature being mailed from the Warren office of the U. S. Forest Service at the present time is included a small card containing eight helpful hints on "How you can help prevent forest fires." In view of the fact that grass fires are already being reported in the borough it would seem that it is not too early to bring this information to the attention of readers. The suggestions are as follows:

1. Smoking: Smoke only while stopping in a safe place, clear of all inflammable material; never while traveling in the woods.
2. Matches: Be sure your match is out. Break it in two before you throw it away.
3. Tobacco: Be sure that pipe ashes and cigar or cigarette stubs are dead before throwing them away. Never throw them into brush, leaves, or needles.
4. Making camp: Before building a fire scrape away all inflammable material from a spot 5 feet in diameter. Dig a hole in the center and in it build your campfire. Keep your fire small, never build it against trees or logs or near brush.
5. Breaking camp: Never break camp until your fire is out—dead out.
6. How to put out a camp fire: Stir the coals while soaking them with water. Turn small sticks and drench both sides. Wet the ground around the fire. Be sure the last spark is dead.
7. Brush burning: Never burn slash or brush in windy weather or while there is the slightest danger that the fire will get away.
8. Extinguish any small fires you can. Report all fires to the nearest warden or ranger.

FIVE MILLION BIBLES

For many years the Gideon Bible in hotel rooms has been a distinctive American institution. In no other country, so far as we know, has an organization undertaken such a task, to make certain that every traveler who goes to his hotel room in a strange city shall find there the Book of Books.

Now the Gideons are undertaking to see to it that every soldier and sailor shall have the same privilege. They plan to distribute 5,000,000 Bibles to soldiers and sailors during the next four years.

Who shall say that this is the least part of America's armament?

Tomorrow will mark the 166th anniversary of a speech that—excepting only the Gettysburg address—is the most famous patriotic oration in American history. The highlights of that stirring, fateful address (reminiscent of the state of the world today) are recalled in an article written exclusively for NEA and the Times-Mirror, by Louis Bromfield, noted American author, which appears on page ten of this issue.

"THE LAMP OF GOD"

REV. D. H. JACK
Youngville Methodist Church

Psalm 119: 105 verse: "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path."

I do not know of any Psalm which expresses better the Psalmist's love for the word of God than this. It was to him a lamp that gave him light for all the travels of his life no matter how difficult the way; not the unsteady task of the driving duty we make Scripture reading become, but the passionate privilege that brought joy and comfort to his soul. This Psalm, considered by many scholars as a classic, cannot be read by anyone without much thought. Its message is so searching of heart and soul that the reader cannot help but realize that he stands before a great Spiritual mirror reflecting the rays from the very heart of God.

Needless for me to say that this Psalm made a great impression upon the early religious fathers. Jesus, too, lived in its spirit. In it they found the ray of light that lighted them from this life into the eternal life beyond.

"Thy word is a lamp," says the Psalmist. A lamp is an instrument of light. And light, one of man's essential needs. God revealed this in the beginning for He said in His creation, "Let there be light, and there was light for the benefit of man. The development of the means of lighting is a most interesting study. Not far from here there is on display the various types of lamps used by our early forefathers and these are compared with the incandescent lamp of the modern day. For many hundreds of centuries men have been manufacturing lamps that will produce better light for the convenience of man.

We read in God's word where ancient philosophers made a lamp but this lamp was a feeble one, people kept coming out: "Give us light—give us light. This lamp was insufficient for their needs. But after awhile prophets, evangelists and apostles made a lamp. It was not lighted by the common use of heat but rather by a coal from off the altar of heaven. Since then it has been lighted in a blaze and uncounted multitudes of people with their Bibles in their hands have claimed: "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my pathway." Here then is the light sufficient to the need of the life of man for all times.

The hymn writer puts his version of God's lamp in these words:

O Word of God Incarnate,
O wisdom from on high,
O truth unchanged, unchanging
O light of our dark sky,
We praise thee for the radiance
That from the Hallowed page
A lantern to our foot steps,
Shines on from age to age.

PRAYER: O God, for thy word of light we give thee thanks. For the radiance from thy sacred pages where gems of truth are stored. Help us to use this light as a lamp unto our feet and light unto our pathway. That our travels of life—mid mists and rocks and quicksands—may be lighted by Thee.

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Erre Stone was standing in a flea circus and shaking his head in wonder at the antics of the little beasts when a man next to him said, "I wonder how they train them."

"I don't know," Stone said, slowly, "unless they beat them."

John Buckmaster, although unfailingly polite, occasionally cracks down on annoyances who ruin his night club act by carrying on conversations while he is onstage. Buckmaster is a mime and his characterizations of people have won much applause during the last two seasons.

At his first show the other evening a lady who, to put it bluntly, was over-lanky on gin, kept calling "Come on over and say hello—come on over and say hello." Buckmaster ignored this, but two hours later, when he returned for another appearance, she was still there and at once began crying, "Come on over and say hello."

Finally, after she had called to him a dozen times, Buckmaster stopped his act and said, "No, but I'll be glad to say good-bye."

However, this had no effect on the lady whatever. She was still there, still tanked, still having a high old time when Buckmaster departed.

WE DROPPED by the studios at 155 East 24th street the other evening just as Gertrude Lawrence got out of a cab and came in. The star of "Lady in the Dark" was there to make some recordings for Victor of the tunes in her hit show, and it soon became apparent that she was not alone.

Measrs Dick Jones and Clyde Smith left yesterday morning for a short trip in Indiana during which they will buy a carload of draft horses, returning with these on next Saturday.

The borough of Tidoute will shortly offer for sale $15,000 of road bonds, the proceeds of which will be used in widening the new road to be built through the borough.

There was only one vendor on the street market this morning. It would appear that the farmers have sold all their surplus produce or do not believe in the local market.

More than 420 million handkerchiefs valued by factories at $20,000,000 are made in the U. S. each year, according to the Census.

A Washington Daybook

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—If I leave it to the others to give you the staggering figures on Grand Coulee dam. It's the biggest thing by far ever built by man.

What I want to tell you is the story that Rep. Knute Hill, of Prosser, Wash., told me. It is the story of the vision of three "little men" and of a fourth who joined them immediately in that vision and in the great battle against ridicule, indifference, and the constant dipping in their ears of the phrase, "It can't be done."

It can be written now, because it is done. With the opening of the Grand Coulee dam, March 22, their vision is a reality.

Some day some poet may make verses about it as well known as those of Robert W. Service, which start: "A bunch of the boys were whooping it up"—except that these "boys" weren't whooping it up; they were just eating lunch. And it wasn't in any saloon; it was in the Ephrata cafe, in Ephrata, Wash. And the "boys" were just business men of this little town of 516 population.

It Started in 1918

THEY were William M. "Billy" Clapp, lawyer; Gale Mathews, abstractor, and Rufus Woods, editor of the Wenatchee (Wash.) Daily World. It was the summer of 1918 and everybody was talking about the war and the second Battle of the Marne. But not these three. They were mulling over the future of the Great Northwest and they fell to talking of that stretch of millions of acres of rich but too-arid land that rolls up and away from the cliffs of the Columbia river east of the towering Cascade mountains.

That was their land. They knew that it would do it if it had water. They knew that it once had had water. Ages ago, an ice barrier slipped down from the north, blocked up the Columbia river and changed its course to the south where hundreds of feet above its bed it gouged out the now dry Dead-end canyon which is called Grand Coulee. Then the ice receded, the river dropped back into its old channel and left Grand Coulee and surrounding land high and dry.

Probably somebody, mopping his brow, said: "I wish we had a pack now."

It was "Billy" Clapp who said: "Why not? We could dam the Columbia and then pump the water up into the Coulee."

So the story goes, Mathews said he thought that was a darn good idea and Rufus Woods hammered the table and said: "Billy's got it. In the days that followed, talk turned to plans and plans to action. The first plans for the project were doodles on that Ephrata cafe tablecloth. They started writing letters and making speeches to small groups. Woods started expounding with editorials in his newspapers.

15 Years Of Effort

FARMERS called them nuts. Others just shook their heads. They had seriously suggested bending the Columbia river bed skyward and riding the current to the moon, few of their neighbors would have considered them any crazier. It was some time along there that "Jim" O'Sullivan, who had already mastered the feat of becoming both a lawyer and engineer, decided if they were crazy, he wanted to be crazy, too.

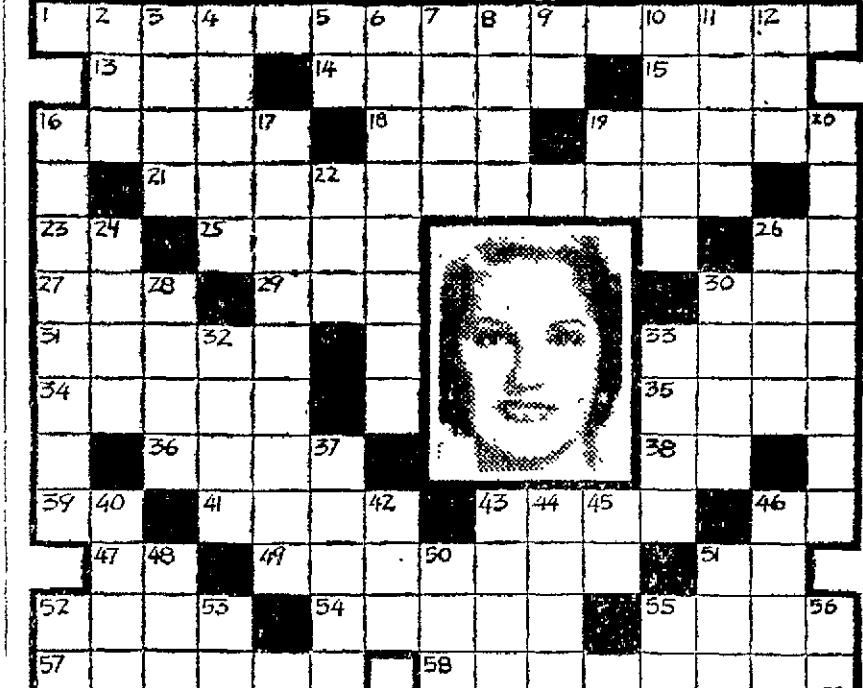

For nearly 15 years they bombarded the state legislature, Washington business men, farmers, Congress and the government in Washington, D. C. with every known form of persuasion up to the borderline of violence. As the depression moved into the '30's, what had been only a vision in a little Ephrata cafe became a vision in the nation's capital and funds were drawn and funds issued for start of the great project. Now, with its first hydroelectric unit finished and water backing up behind that 500-foot high gargantuan wall of concrete into what will eventually become a 150-mile long lake, the only vision left is that needed to bring the great industrial and agricultural empire to its full flowering.

And that's the story of the four Fathers of Grand Coulee, as it was told to me. Without them, the "biggest work ever done by man" might never have been done at all.

Up here in North America, we're getting acquainted rapidly with our Latin American neighbors in the interests of what they call "hemisphere solidarity." See how much you know about the neighbors by answering these questions.

1. Is any country in South America larger in area than the U. S.?
2. Is the Amazon river longer than the Mississippi?
3. What two South American nations have no seaports, and which is the only Central American country not on the Atlantic Ocean?
4. What South American capital is known as the "City of Kings?"
5. What South American countries are called to mind by these products: (a) beef; (b) beans; (c) oil; (d) nuts.

O. E. S. Drama Club Has Easter Egg Party

Over 60 members of the Order of Eastern Star Drama Club were entertained in the Y. W. C. A. Thursday evening by Mrs. Hazel Chesnut. Mrs. Doretta Jacobson, Mrs. Lotta Colt, Mrs. Harriet Ostergard, Mrs. Mabel Peel, Mrs. Camilla Bathurst, Mrs. Edith Krespan, Mrs. Marjorie Dougherty, Mrs. Alice Redding, Mrs. Eunice Krebs, Mrs. Mildred Ostergard, Mrs. Lillian Kuapp, Miss Teresa Nelson and Mrs. Genevieve Moll.

Mrs. Chesnut, president, was in charge of the business meeting. Mrs. Helen Braunschweiger, secretary, read names of those who had entertained "social eight" groups in the past few months.

Guests were then invited to act in a dramatization of jokes cut from current magazines, while Mrs. Krebs opened the program with a skit, "Maggie Brannigan on Romeo and Juliet." She was assisted by Mrs. Ruth Lind.

Invitations sent to members had been in the form of an Easter egg and games were planned around that theme, with a written "egg-amination" which furnished amusement.

All were invited to the dining room, where the table was centered with a large "hen dish" loaned by Mrs. Miller. The Easter egg theme was again stressed in appointments and menu.

It was reported that Mrs. Edith Ahlquist and Mrs. Genevieve Moll, hospitality hostesses for the month, entertained their group recently at the former's home; also, that Mrs. Olive Peterson will be in charge of the April meeting.

Owls Collapse Before Terrific Onslaught Of Duquesne Hi

Score Only 8 Points In Last Half And Go Down By 46-34 Count

Harrisburg, March 22.—(P)—Five teams—Duquesne, Sharpsville, Lower Merion, Luzerne, Mahanoy City—remain in the running for the 1941 state high school basketball championship with Luzerne and Mahanoy City due to be topped off the list tonight.

Duquesne, Sharpsville and Lower Merion advanced to the state-wide semi-finals last night. Luzerne and Mahanoy City clash tonight at Philadelphia for the right to enter the round of four. A crowd of 10,000 is expected at the University of Pennsylvania Palestra to watch this "natural" between two rival teams from the anthracite area.

Making a great comeback after trailing by 26 to 17 at the half, Duquesne's District Seven champions stamped itself as a strong contender for the coveted state crown by beating Bradford, 49 to 34, at Pittsburgh. Bradford's District Nine champs collapsed in the second half and scored only eight points. George and Mike Bytuta led the victors with 25 points between them.

Duquesne now meets Sharpsville's District Ten "wonder" club next Tuesday for the western regional title. Sharpsville conquered Franklinboro, District Six champions, by 36-33 at Farrell.

Lower Merion sprang an upset in walloping Williamsport, District Four titleholders, 27 to 17, at Philadelphia. Williamsport was behind by only 16-14 starting the last period, but collapsed after the loss of its star, Bill Poust, via the four personal foul route.

OIL CITY ST. JOE'S SCORE TOURNEY WIN

Williamsport, Pa., March 22.—(P)—The semi-final round of the fifth annual state Catholic high school basketball tournament gets underway today, but the defending champion and favorite—Johnstown Central Catholic—will not be around for the fireworks.

The champs were knocked off 35 to 26 by Oil City St. Joe's, a team of 29 by St. Gabriel's of Hazleton in the first round of the invitation tournament last night. The winners piled up 15 points to 5 for Johnstown in the 3rd quarter, and stayed off a last period rally.

A first and third period spurge gave Williamsport St. Joseph's a 26 to 25 victory over Lancaster Catholic in the closest thriller of the night. St. Joseph's of Oil City scored easily over Bradford St. Bernard's 31 to 13, holding the losers to five points in the last half.

This afternoon's pairings pit Oil City against Williamsport and Harrisburg against Hazleton. Semi-final losers meet tonight, with the championship finale following.

REGIONAL GYM MEET BEING HELD TODAY

Four carloads of Warren High School athletes left this morning for Slippery Rock where they will take part in the regional P. I. A. A. gymnastic meet.

The Dragons, who won the District Ten meet with ridiculous ease, will be out to retain their regional championship and qualify as many as possible for the western Pennsylvania meet and the state championship.

Coches Fleming's 1939 team won the Pennsylvania tumbling event, annexed the state gym title last year and are given a good chance to repeat.

CINCINNATI KEGLERS JUST SHY OF 3,000

The Schmiesings also posted the high team game with 1,071, closing the series after making up scores of 951 and 995.

SPORT SCATTERINGS

We'd like to remind you fans that Monday night at the Y. M. C. A. you can catch one last glimpse of the capable combination which represented Warren High School on the court this season, when the Generals and the Pattersons square off in the rubber game of their series, "Jap" and "Red", who received all-league honors, will be on deck, together with two who got honorable mention, Johnny Pick and "Sting" Brown, as well as Cliff Graham, Chuck Hoffacker and Gail Templeton. For the Pattersons there will be Elmo and Hank Wolfe, Bud Kibbas, Johnny Pawk & Co. You'll recall that the Generals copped the first engagement by a score of 55-54 and would have taken the second 54-53 if the floor in the last seven seconds to down the ex-high luminaries. Yes, sir, that should be quite a ball game.

Local basketball followers got quite a kick out of the Detroit Eagles winning the world's professional basketball championship, for the Eagles are the outgrowth of the Warren Penn quint, a member of the National Professional League a couple of seasons back. After giving up the local franchise, the Penns became the Cleveland White Horses and last year operated at Detroit. This year, "Dutch" Dehnert, famous Celtic, coached the club, succeeding Gerry Archibald. The Eagles won the crown before 12,000 fans in the International Amphitheater at Chicago, defeating the Oshkosh All-Stars, 39-37. In the playoff for third place in the title tourney, the New York Renaissance defeated the Toledo White Huts, 57 to 42. Harry "Bud" Jeanette is the only one of the old Warren combination now with Detroit. Bill Holland having checked out early in the season, Deacon Stankey leaving last year and Joe Leson dropping out in Cleveland.

A trout is always hungry and will take whatever he can get with the least effort, declares Dick Miller, world champion fly caster, in the current Rotarian magazine. But it's not just as easy as all that. Miller goes on to point out that you have to find out what he is eating as his regular diet when you are calling on him. Experiments with tame fish show that they will rise to a lure the same as they are eating at the time, but will ignore one that differs in color or general appearance. "Improve your casting and you'll improve your fishing," Miller asserts. "No matter what your present ability may be, you can double your catch. All of which is primary stuff to the real fishermen, such as Harry Shawkey, Don Finley, Len Donaldson, "Buff" Munn and Isaac Walton Johnson, the demon of the pressroom, but to the neophytes the article may prove interesting. By the way, Munn has already promised us another trout breakfast. Uh-huh.

FRANKIE FRISCH HAS A SCRAPPY PIRATE COMBINE

Los Angeles, March 22.—(P)—Manager Frankie Frisch demanded a fighting ball club when he took over the Pittsburgh Pirates, and he's got one. As matters stand today, he has a young army of players fighting each other for a chance to play as a regular this season.

The biggest brawl of all—of course it's a friendly sort of tussle with cut-throats and blackjacks bare—was the scramble for the pitching positions. That department also may be Frisch's main problem.

Acc of the hurling corps, is Alabama-born Truett Banks Sewell, or Rip, whose 16 wins against five defeats was a major item in Frisch's successful campaign to haul the Buck out of the second division.

Two outstanding rookie hurlers are Dick Conger, up from Beaumont, and Aldon Wilkie, a freshman sensation with Seattle last year. Russ Bauers has shown encouraging signs of a comeback and elongated Johnny Gee, the $75,000 tall boy, has been working hard to get over a sore arm and redeem himself after his disappointing debut in 1940.

Relief Pitcher Joe Bowman, Mace Brown, Max Butcher, Ken Heintzelman, Bob Klingler, Dick Lannahan, John Lanning, Oadis Swigart, Lloyd Dietz and Bill Clemensen, of the boys from Syracuse—these complete the roll of leading aspirants.

Frisch is pretty well set with the rest of his team, and it shapes up as a good one. Flashy Elbie Fletcher at first, Frankie Gustine at second, Veteran Arky Vaughan at short and Lee Handley at third make up the infield, although Debs Garms has been doing third base duty in spring games. Stu Marbo is also on hand for second base service.

Fordham Frankie has two sets of outfielders, one swinging from the right side of the plate, the other from the port side. He probably will lead off with Maurice Van Robays, Vince DiMaggio and Bob Elliott, but he has Lloyd Little (Eaton) Warner, Garms and young Eddie Stewart, who hit .320 with San Diego last year, to call in if need be. Juggling these players around, it would appear that Pittsburgh should have a powerful outfield from start to finish.

Virgil (Spud) Davis and Al Lopez will carry the catching burden, and Frisch has no problem on this score.

"I'm not saying where we'll finish," said the ruddy faced pilot, "but I can promise Pittsburgh fans and the rest of the ball clubs that we'll be in there fighting."

That was what Frisch promised last year. He delivered.

Philadelphia, March 22.—(P)—An art school student's preparations to move from a dormitory were rudely interrupted last night by the theft of her automobile containing clothing, jewelry and furnishings.

Miss Betty Dubrow, a student at the Moore Institute of Art, Science and Industry, told police her $800 machine containing $600 worth of goods disappeared when she returned to the dormitory to get more of her belongings.

"Butch" Gay stole the spotlight in the Conewango Club loop by hitting 654 for a new high season total and missing the high game by a tough break. Gay started out his second game with six clean strikes and shoved the minicricket into the pocket for the seventh, but the six pin was wedged between a couple of moving pins and refused to topple. "Butch" then went on for 242 after missing the one-pinner by a hair. . . The Ericksons jumped from the cellar to sixth place as a result of the four-point victory over the Trevenens. . . Harry Conarro led the losers with 224 and 571 and Doc Templeton also contributed an honor roll game of 212.

At the Arcade the Bears and the Tigers each copped four points by forfeit when the opposition failed to show up and spent the evening bowling a special match.

Maders took three points from the Newell Press to cling to a slender lead in the Elks Lecturing Night circuit, but Geracimos copped all four from the Fords and moved to within a single game of the top-rung boys. . . The Keystone Printers improved their position in the first division with a trio from Wills Cleaners and the Pontiacs took a forfeit four from the Printz Co. . . There were no honor roll scores, but "Sparky" Fredericks and Stan Brooks had games of 202 and 200. . . Jim Scalise's 528 was good for high total.

The schoolboy dashed across the heavily-traveled highway toward the machine of his father who stopped to take the youngster home.

Detroit, March 22.—(P)—Slide over, Al McCoy, Red Burman and Gus Dorazio and make room for Conrade Abie Simon—a fighter with courage almost beyond imagination.

Ponderous Abie Simon, 254 pounds of him, has joined the ranks of 14 other futile contenders for Joe Louis' world's heavyweight championship, but in so doing he gave the Brown Bomber the hardest and most surprising fight he has experienced as titleholder. Looking everybody in a staring-room crowd of 18,908 in Detroit's Olympia Arena last night, Simon, figured to last no longer than four rounds, fell victim to a technical knockout after one minute and 20 seconds of the thirteenth round.

Referee Sam Hanessey humanely stopped the sensational battle after Louis had knocked Simon down twice in quick succession for counts of nine in that fatal round. Simon was on his feet, his hands gripping the top rope of the ring as he oiled his face, but he was helpless and could not continue.

"The man was absolutely helpless," Hanessey explained. "I had nothing to do but stop it. If I had allowed Louis to hit the helpless Simon a finishing blow, there might have been serious consequences."

As a reward for his courageous and surprising showing, Promoter Mike Jacobs planned to give Simon another shot at the title. He intends to rematch the pair for a 15-round engagement in New York May 18.

Louis, with a big shiner under his left eye, praised Simon's gameness, declaring he was tougher than Primo Carnera. The champion's hands pained him so terribly after he reached the dressing room that he was ordered to soak them in buckets of ice water. Louis said he was no more tired than usual after a championship bout, and that Simon never really hurt him.

The battle was a thriller from the start, producing four knockdowns, all scored by Louis. The bout was only a few seconds off when the champion, letting fly with his first right hand blow, landed it flush on Abe's jaw and knocked him down for the first time in his life. He got up at the count of two, smiling.

Louis let go another right hand smash in the third, flooring Simon for a count of nine. Louis must have thought this was the end, for he walked away slowly, looking at Simon over his shoulder. At the count of nine, however, big Abe dragged himself to his feet and, to the surprise of the shouting spectators, began pumping tantalizing lefts into the champion's reddening nose and left eye. To his credit, it must be said that Simon went to his finish game and unafraid. He carried the battle to Louis at least half of the way, sweeping him off balance with a snaky left to the face, but rarely using his right. He kept this weapon as defense for blocking.

The experts agreed that if he had possessed a good right hand punch he might have stuck for 20 rounds.

BUSINESS STILL INCREASING

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 22.—Predictions of an even further step-up in industrial operations in this area were made by the Allegheny regional advisory board's report estimating 977,120 freight cars will be needed during the second quarter as compared with 803,577 cars used in the corresponding period last year.

Commodity shipments will be the highest since 1929, the board stated, with coal and coke shipments requiring 537,373 cars.

There are about 3000 wooden railroad ties to the mile on American railroads.

Nazis Are Active in Atlantic
warfare in the past, the agency said, but Admiral Luetjens took to sea what was described as "a larger group."

Five of the vessels sunk were from Canada, it said, and were "very near enemy battleships" at the time.

The High Command announced its total of 224,000 tons as follows: Eleven ships totaling 77,000 tons sunk by submarines which clung "tenaciously to the foe for several days" and repeatedly renewed attacks on a convoy off the west African coast.

A total of 31,000 tons sunk by the air force yesterday—20,000 in an attack north of Crete in the Aegean Sea, 8,000 in Bristol channel off Pembroke, and 3,000 in English waters southeast of Alderburgh.

In addition, the High Command said a destroyer was hit on the bow by a bomb at Malta, and another vessel of 6,000 tons was set afire in the attack near Crete.

(The British Press Association said yesterday in London that the German battleships Scharnhorst and Gneisenau, fast, heavily-armed sister ships of 26,000 tons each, were operating in the Atlantic.)

Earlier, the Germans reported that submarines had raised the toll taken on a large British convoy off the west African coast from 69,000 to 77,000 tons sunk yesterday.

This was in addition to the destruction of two British ships—one of them a tanker—and heavy damage to a third ship claimed by the German air force last night after attacks off the island of Crete, along Britain's route of reinforcement to Greece.

A tanker of 10,000 to 12,000 tons and a freighter of 8,000 tons were said to have been destroyed, and a 6,000-ton freighter left listing.

German newspapers, after a tour of aircraft factories, reported that the powerful JU-88 dive bombers are rolling now out of assembly plants at the rate of more than four per day, adding to the Reich's reserve of air power.

One of the visitors, Hans Georg Schulze, declared, "even if we multiply our losses by ten, we can produce more planes daily than they can make the world believe we are losing—and we don't care if the whole world knows it."

Schulze, writing in the Berliner Zeitung, declared that aircraft production was too heavy to be absorbed by the air force and that many planes were being taken to concentration points.

Charles Smith, 29, remained stoic until the fifth stroke when he hugged the post and tried to shift about.

Edward H. Newman, 25, jumped and squirmed so much it took Warden Wilson two minutes to complete the whipping. The remaining three, John Jacobs, 25, Emory Nichols, 20, and Albert Cheshire, 27, didn't seem to mind the whipping.

Italy Hard Hit

Dr. Weizmann, engaged in chemical research for the British government, said 1,000 Jews were in the British fighting lines and 7,000 in the auxiliary services.

Sir Firoz, who said he would go to Washington to discuss matters of "mutual interest" with the State Department, asserted that India was "A-1 behind the war effort." He said only the congress party "has objected to the war, but only as a matter of record, and have not thwarted the war efforts at all."

The Indian army, he added, was doing "wonderfully well" in Libya, Ethiopia, Eritrea and Singapore.

Popular Resentment Threatens to Block Alliance With Axis

might block permanently the plan to swing Yugoslavia into the Axis camp.

It was disclosed that both Arthur Bliss Lane and Ronald Ian Campbell, the United States and British ministers to Belgrade, had interviewed Cvetkovski yesterday in an effort to ascertain the Yugoslavian government's intentions.

Reliable quarters said, however, that neither had made any proposals or suggestions.

A London broadcast in Serbian in the early evening, in which Yugoslavians were warned against "making the pact," was the subject of conversation in cafes all during the night.

The broadcast said "Yugoslavia is a nation which must decide whether she wishes to be another Rumania or follow in the road of freedom and independence."

Dispatches from Berlin in the morning papers said the country had been "left free to make her own decision as to whether she would join the side of England or go the way of freedom in her own self interest."

Neutral observers said the danger of real internal trouble was grave. It was disclosed, for example, that the powerful independent Democratic party had approved the action taken by its cabinet representative, Social Welfare Minister Dr. Srdjan Budisavljevic, in resigning.

Berlin, March 22.—(P)—Unofficial foreign office sources, expressing pleasure over Yugoslav cabinet developments, said today the three ministers who resigned were "not especially noted for being friendly to Germany."

A total commentator said that one of the resigned Yugoslav ministers was a high degree Mason.

Istanbul, Turkey, March 22.—(P)—Possible Turkish aid if Yugoslavia decides to resist German demands and Greece and Britain decide to help her, was reported to the British press today in a long conference between Foreign Minister Sukru Saracoglu and the Yugoslav ambassador.

(Unconfirmed reports were received in Belgrade from Turkey that Soviet Russia had given the Turks a "free hand" to aid Yugoslavia.)

ments from citizens of their home towns. Of the total about $7,000 is the War Department athletic fund.

Supplementing the outdoor recreation program, a full schedule of motion pictures, amateur entertainments and professional shows is being arranged for the summer.

Such activities have been delayed by the fact that regimental recreation halls have not been finished.

The increase in hospital cases to over 1,000 was described by medical officers as an "unusual but not critical situation." Most of those hospitalized are suffering from common colds.

As 55 new patients boosted the hospital load to 1,003, two new wards in the hospital were opened.

The hospital was originally planned for 750 beds, but some overcrowding was avoided when the hospital personnel moved from their quarters to provide additional facilities.

fair labor practices against the big Ford Motor Company shortly after a federal mediator reported that progress had been made in efforts to bring together the firm and the CIO Auto Workers.

A trial examiner will hear the complaint April 14. The allegations apply to three Ford plants in the Detroit area.

Negotiations were to continue at a quickened pace today in an effort to settle the strike of 350 CIO workers at the Harvill Aircraft Die Casting Company plant at Los Angeles. Harry C. Malcom, federal conciliator, asked company and labor representatives to try to compromise, but no agreement was reached yesterday.

Officials of several west coast plane factories say they need the Harvill castings urgently and may have to shut down unless they are forthcoming quickly.

The union seeks wage increases, and coal miners and operators planned to get down to business next week on a new two-year contract.

BURIED IN CINDERS
Firemen early today extricated 12-year-old Chester Damski and recovered the body of his 14-year-old brother, Joseph, from a pile of cinders that fell on them while they were salvaging coke from a city-owned cinder dump on the east side in Erie. The boys, sons of Mrs. Anna Damski, 40, widow, went to the cinder pile yesterday afternoon. When they failed to return at midnight, their mother, notified police who found the boys' small cart near the pile.

Legislation is being proposed in Oklahoma to limit the gasoline capacity of motor vehicles to 20 gallons, and make the carrying of a reserve fuel supply contingent on the carrier being established as a gasoline distributor.

It is estimated that 40 per cent of the persons killed in traffic accidents during 1940 and 25.9 per cent of the persons injured were the direct result of drivers exceeding the speed limit.

Movie Award Winner Is in the Army Now

Los Angeles, March 22.—(P)—This is IRCCF day for Jimmy Stewart.

The 1 is for induction; R for reporters, C for cameramen and FF for feminine fans, who crowded the subway terminal for a farewell glimpse of the movie academy award winner.

Maj. Arthur Davidson, commanding officer of the induction station, made certain that Jimmy didn't slip away unnoticed. He called reporters and cameramen into conference yesterday to plan details.

Despite the early hour, 7 a. m. PST, women and girls crowded the terminal and the few blocks along which Stewart and other conscripts marched to induction headquarters.

For the benefit of young men yet to be called, Major Davidson explained just what the army should mean to them. Rest and other soldiers' words would repeat his words throughout the nation.

OBITUARY
MRS. JOHN ENGLISH
Kinzua, March 22.—Services in memory of Ethel D. English, wife of John English, were held from the home Monday afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by Rev. King, district elder of the Seventh Day Adventist church. He was assisted by Rev. M. W. Seidler, of Bradford, Rev. H. F. Farrington, of Franklinville, N. Y., and Rev. Wayne B. Price, Kinzua Methodist minister. Her favorite hymn, "Hold My Hand, Lord," was read.

Mrs. English had been a faithful member of the Seventh Day Adventist church since early girlhood. Although in ill health a greater part of the past 40 years, her thoughts were always of others, including her husband, who had turned from an operation in the Bradford hospital on the Monday preceding her death.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful and the home was filled with relatives and friends. She was laid to rest in Kinzua cemetery by the side of a little granddaughter, Genevieve English, who passed away ten years ago.

Among those who came from out of town before and during the services were the following: Mrs. Myrtle Fellows, Millicent and Mildred Fellows, Elsie, Mr. and Mrs. Hector English and children, Wayne and Susanne, Owsong, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stegall, Philadelphia; Rev. and Mrs. H. for domestic defense by a vote of 327 to 0. Rep. Woodrum (D-Va.) said it would bring to $23,152,674, 015 the total of appropriations contract authorizations and pending budget estimates made for national defense since Germany's invasion of the low countries. That total, he said, did not include the $7,000,000,000 aid-to-democracies fund.

Before the final vote, the house rejected an amendment by Rep. Case (R-SD) which would have prohibited the use of any of the money for conveying materials to foreign countries. Woodrum asked for defeat of the proviso on the ground the house should not attempt to revise the British aid law each time it considered an appropriation measure.

Patrick Henry's Words of 166 Years Ago Carry 1941 Ring, Writes Louis Bromfield

BY LOUIS BROMFIELD
Author of "Night in Bombay,"
"The Rains Came," etc.

Written for NEA Service
And now, having read the immortal speech, I find it difficult to sit down and write of it in the simpler language of our times, one hundred and sixty-six years after the small, slight patriot stood up in the Virginia Provincial Convention and spoke those words which even more than the motto which appears on our currency, have become the slogan of our nation.

Patrick Henry was facing the oppressors, the compromisers, the men who would have bargained and quibbled and talked, endlessly, over the most precious of man's possessions. He spoke, not from a written draft, carefully weighed and prepared. This, in a surge of passionate feeling, he had thrown aside. He spoke out of his heart, out of his instinct, out of his intelligence and experience. He finished the speech with a single sentence which should serve for all time as the guiding light of every good American.

I like to imagine him, in that small, crowded room, facing the compromisers and the traitors, benches where sat the "safe" men, alone, slim, defiant, afraid of nothing, not even of death on a charge of treason. The men on the benches opposite him have been discredited and forgotten, but every American child knows the name of Patrick Henry. I can imagine the deadly silence which followed that immortal final sentence: "I know not what course others may take, but as for me, give me liberty or give me death."

It was not that variety of patriotism defined by Samuel Johnson as "the last refuge of the scoundrel" which moved Patrick Henry. We have had a good deal of that sort of patriotism recently; it has always been the chief grievance in the stock and trade of the partisan politician. Patrick Henry was moved by something even greater than patriotism. He was moved by a passion for human liberty.

Between the circumstances which gave rise to the famous speech and those which entangle us today, there is a striking similarity. The difference is one of scope and scale alone, for today, not only is our own liberty threatened, but the liberty of the whole world and the liberty of generations to come. In that speech, made one hundred and sixty-six years ago, there is many a phrase which could be uttered today with even greater significance.

More than a century ago, he asked the Virginia Provincial Convention, "Are fleets and armies necessary to a work of love and reconciliation? Have we shown ourselves so unwilling to be reconciled that force must be called in to win back our love? . . . I ask the gentlemen, sir, what means this martial array, if its purpose be not to force us into submission? . . . Shall we try argument? Sir, we have been trying that for the last ten years. Have we anything new to offer upon the subject? Nothing. We have held the subject up in every light of which it is capable; but it has all been in vain."

Or again, "Are we disposed to be of the number of those who, having eyes, see not, and having ears, hear not, the things which so nearly concern their temporal salvation?" To the compromisers now left to obscurity, he cried passionately, "The gentlemen may cry 'Peace, Peace,' but there is no peace!"

When I feel sickened and grieved by the rantings of cheap politicians, I like to close my eyes and think of that slight figure rising to face the whole world with a cry which will live forever . . . "I know not what course others may take, but as for me, give me liberty or give me death!"

He knew as each one of us knows in his heart, that life without liberty is intolerable.

Everybody Reads the Times-Mirror

"... as for me, give me liberty or give me death!"

Apparently a second place Jonah has attached itself to me. At Richmond I finished second, at Baltimore in a tie for second, and recently, at the district team-four championship at Harrisburg, Pa., our team, consisting of John Law, Joseph Cohan, A. M. Sobel and myself, finished in a tie for second place.

During the second session of the contest, Joe Cohan, a contractor from Wooster, O., helped our score by his fine play on today's hand.

East won the opening lead with the king of clubs and shifted to a heart, which Cohan won. The queen of spades was led and allowed to win, and the bad trump break showed up when East discarded a heart.

Cohan continued with the ten of diamonds, which was overtaken by dummy's jack. Then a club lead brought out East's ace. East led another heart.

Now Cohan cashed his two good clubs, discarding diamonds from dummy. He led the ace and king

ENLISTMENTS IN NAVAL RESERVE BEING RECEIVED

It was announced yesterday that the Buffalo Naval Recruiting Station in the post office building in this city has received authority to enlist young men in which has been designated as Class V-2, U. S. Naval Reserve.

Applicants for enlistment in Class V-2 must fulfill the following requirements: (a) Be male citizens of the U. S. between their 17th and 26th birthdays; (b) Be of good character; (c) Possess the moral, educational and physical requirements specified for enlistment in the regular navy and be graduates of an aviation, vocational or aviation trade school or possess equivalent educational experience through previous employment; (d) must have no dependents or be able to support those he has on the part of the rate for which he is enlisted.

For the present, it was stated, enlistments in Class V-2 may be made in the rating of apprentice seamen only ($21.00 per month). Such enlistees will be enlisted and sent to their homes to await orders from the commandant of the third Naval District, which embraces the Buffalo Navy Recruiting District, of which this section is a part.

It is expected that a quota for this Class V-2 will be received shortly.

Men desiring to make application for enlistment in this Class V-2 should call at the Navy office in 505 Post Office Building, Buffalo, and if found qualified, will be placed on the waiting list it was stated. It is believed that these men will probably be called to active duty before the end of the fiscal year.
